You’ve just started a new assignment in a new country. You don’t speak the language. Everything is new and unfamiliar. And then you lose your passport. Now what?
The answer is to call Cigna. Yes, Cigna.

While you know we provide easy access to quality health care around the world, our benefits go beyond that. Check out these great services we offer:

- Advice for how to recover or replace lost documents like passports and credit cards.
- Coordinate emergency travel arrangements for family members who escort another family member to the hospital.
- Provide personal emergency telephone translation services.
- Help find the right doctor or hospital closest to your location.
- Find or replace prescription medication.
- Coordinate emergency travel arrangements for children under the age of 18 who are left unattended if a family member becomes sick.
- Help obtain necessary documents for medical insurance claims.
- Arrange for an emergency medical evacuation.

Not just health care. Real-life care.
